... and the Pantomime Horse

Two Shades of Blue proudly presents a rollicking tale of mystery and adventure, confused nationalities, kickass princesses and buried treasure.

Licking his wounds after another botched mission, Indiana Jones returns to Morocco for a stiff drink and a quick cuddle with the girl he walked out on over a year ago. But no sooner are the lovers reunited than disaster strikes – again!

Can Indy find the treasure and the girl and save the day before it's too late?

Accompanied by his man-eating mother, devoted manservant and horse, Indy faces the usual cast of sinisterly-inept, country-confused double agents, spies and greedy archvillains, who would do anything to stop him! Join us for an hour of punfilled fun, comic exploits, outrageous accents and music you'll be singing along to for days after, as Indiana Jones and the Pantomime Horse defy villainy to seek the long lost Treasure of the Gorgons!
